3. Contact details of the company data protection officer

Data Protection Officer of the Beilstein-Institut: Datenschutz@beilstein-institut.de

4. Purposes and legal bases of the processing

We collect your personal data for the direct advertising of our scientific publications. Besides the Beilstein Journal of Organic Chemistry and the Beilstein Journal of Nanotechnology we publish the new Beilstein Archives as a third publication medium and now advertise to potential authors for publication in these media.

Your data will be processed on the basis of Art. 6 para. 1 letter f GDPR. We are thus pursuing our foundation's purpose of promoting the chemical sciences and related fields.

5. Categories of personal data processed

The Beilstein-Institut processes the following personal data from you:

- Name
- title
- professional address

6. Source of data

Your data has been collected from scholarly journal publications.

7. Recipients or categories of recipients of the personal data

A passing on to third parties does not take place.

However, your personal data will be transmitted to our order processor, Briefodruck Fülle AG, who has printed and sent the advertising letters.

8. Duration of storage of personal data

Your data will be deleted immediately after their purpose has been achieved, at the latest 6 months after their collection.

9. Rights of data subjects

According to the basic EU data protection regulation, you have the following rights:

- If your personal data are processed, you have the right to obtain information about the data stored about your person (Art. 15 DSGVO).
- Should incorrect personal data be processed, you have the right to correction (Art. 16 DSGVO).
- If the legal requirements are met, you can request the deletion or restriction of the processing and lodge an objection against the processing (Art. 17, 18 and 21 DSGVO).
- If you make use of the rights mentioned above, the Beilstein-Institut will check whether the legal requirements for this have been met.
- To exercise your rights, please contact the company data protection officer.
- If you have any complaints regarding data protection, you can contact the responsible supervisory authority:
